Now about them things that werent agreeable to The Dimocrats hur. One think wuz your trying to show that Buckannon and Linckon and Jonson all porsued the same polisy, holdin out the Idee that the tirant Linckon dun rite. Whereas you ought to remember that there are meny [illegible] Dimocrats in this ere upper country that are fond of telling how rich they wer in Arckkansaw and Mizzoury and how the tirant Linckon robbed em. how can you expeckt them to take a paper in wich it is printed that Linckon dun rite. then when you print anything about Black republican Sheriffs and other officers speculatin in county Orders speak more directly uv the particuler case in hand, and dont come down so hard on the bizness in general. its embarrassin [illegible] our Sheriff as I hez dun rite smart for the purk lashun of the hurrild [illegible] Slater [illegible] and given the blacks fits for not doin what the law and constitushen says [illegible] must do. he handels the delicat subgect fust rait. if you print enything about sich be careful and dont call up recollecktions of his pocketing an inditement while he waz prosekutin districkt Lawyer in this county. leastways dont send any papers hur that has sich in em. we want things to go on as smoothly as possible hur till Is[illegible] gets back from the Senate. I cant tell you [illegible] words cant convay the amount of gratification and thankfullness the Dimocrats hur feel at the way the legislature duz things. it puts them so much in mind of the time onward [illegible] Dimocratic principles me so hear bein carried out in Mizzory and elsewher years ago. it shows the blacks that if them principels were not carried out in Mizzory and Arkansas they were at least carried out of them States and will be carried out in Oregon. It shows them that the "lost caus" they harp so much about is not so much lost as they thought it war. To Dimocrats it conveys the idee that the lost is found, and why shouldent they feel grattyfycation considerin that the Legislatur had to begin earlyer in the mornin than common in order to carry out the reaction to its full extent, it was risky bizness to trust to some of them to vote rite on a short notis but I see our senator's name printed on the same side with Stout and Travit every time. That was a master stroke of [illegible] that showd Sells and [illegible] that they couldent come in to stop the reacktion. some Dimocrats up here thinks it waz Stout that first thought of that way and some thinks it waz Travit. then that resolution requestin Corbit and Williams to rezine since the reacktion has showd them not proper representatives uv Oregon in the rump senit, that ought to be suffishent for them to act on but if it dont let the legislatur declair that Oregon has reackted and that Nezmith and Stout and [illegible] are the senaters. the Dimocrats up here expected the legislatur would instantly bust George W[illegible] out of office, but as the removel his message as governer it is thought now that they intend to bar him out next Christmas. Dont you have some fears that some Radicals will get together and organize a count and rescind Travit's [illegible] and make matter wus than they war? the Dimocrats up here think that bill against the Chinese is the most efective preventiv again that degraded ignorent race gettin the upper hand of us that has bin thought uv yit. If you want to know what the Dimocrats up here thinks about any other sulgjeks just rite to me. P. RIDGE.

The Contrast

Speaking of the increase of Democratic strength in the large cities, where the great and growing multitude of ignorant, vicious, depraved and degraded beings are driven up in solid columns to vote the Democratic ticket, while the honesty, intelligence and virtue of the country are found standing firm for the principles of the Republican party, a leading California journal says:

Let no one despair of the Republic by reason of fraud or force in the corrupt centers of Democratic power. Wait till you hear from the calm, earnest, thinking men who turn the sod of their native land—the busy toilers in field or shop who are the real makers of the country's prosperity and glory, and who, therefore, treasure and guard it as their own—the fathers or brothers who think often by the home hearth of young heroes who gasped out their lives on the battle field or starved to death in some traitors' prison. From such, with such memories, it is vain to expect [illegible] the fact that Hampton, Vance, Hampton and Forrest are again the controlling minds of an opposing [illegible] it is absurd to expect that they will suffer such to become the rulers or the doing [illegible] of the country. But such as these sturdy [illegible] are mainly scattered throughout the country districts, making little noise, but quietly biding their time, our Democratic carpet baggers are apt to under estimate their numbers and their resolution. Yet it is this class of men upon whom good government in this and all lands in this and all ages depends. The greatest [illegible] of the Democratic party is that it cannot win them to its support. The verdict [illegible] this class upon public men or measures rarely, if ever, fails to be just. [illegible] they stand firm in the [illegible] of loyalty, liberty and equal rights. They repudiate utterly the pretexts, the shams, the frauds, whereby it was sought [illegible] dangerous and treacherous rulers upon us [illegible] elections have established it past dispute. Let the Democracy make the most of it.

THE FINANCES.—THE STATEMENT OF ALEXANDER DELMAR.—Gen. Spinner, Treasurer of the United States, characterizes the recent statistical effort of Alexander Delmar to show that this country is financially bankrupt as one of the most blundering attempts at falsifying figures ever published. Although Delmar had access to the Treasurer's books, [illegible] he did not take his figures from them. Gen. Spinner says that his statements are incomplete, and what he has given is often erroneous. McCulloch also characterizes the statements as utterly untrustworthy. The Democratic Secretary cannot see how all the talk about financial mismanagement, for which he must necessarily be largely responsible, can help the party to which he belongs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—At six and a half minutes before eight o'clock this morning San Francisco was visited with the heaviest earthquake shock it has ever known. [illegible] the direction of the shock was southeast and northwest. It lasted 42 seconds and gathered violence [illegible] The time of the second [illegible] was twenty three minutes after nine o'clock. [illegible] The direction was the same as before. [illegible] tremors occurred at intervals [illegible] fifteen minutes past twelve. The more prominent of these caused fresh stampedes to the streets of those who were attempting to conduct business [illegible]

The [illegible] was most severely felt along the east [illegible] of the city, and within the limits of six [illegible] between Montgomery street and Water. On solid land on the [illegible] thickly built business portion of the city [illegible] any well constructed [illegible] at least a score of brick buildings were [illegible] strained or cracked that business [illegible] they may have to be pulled down. Owing to the excitement business is generally suspended for several days.

[illegible] the fatal casualties resulted from the falling [illegible] on the sidewalks beneath. Had the shock occurred half an hour later a larger number of persons would have been killed and wounded. The greatest damage done was to a belt extending several hundred feet wide and running about north west and south east, commencing near the custom house and ending at the [illegible] street wharf, injuring and demolishing [illegible] the following buildings: [illegible] Clay street, Graves' wire works; Howard building, Clay and Sansome; A. S. Rosenbaum, Clay and Battery; S. P. Taylor & Co., J. Frank & Co., M. Reese's building, California street near Sansome; the old one story brick building opposite the New Orleans warehouse, Coffey & Risdon's new building, corner Bush and Market streets; Booth & Co., corner of Mission and First; Gas Co.'s building, Howard and Fremont streets; Folsom street wharf.

The custom house is terribly damaged, and it is questionable whether it will admit of repairs. The building is closed, the business of the department being temporarily removed to the internal revenue office. Coffey & Risdon's building, the walls of which were very thin, is completely demolished. Benchley's building, Oriental Block and Murphy & Grant's building, all adjoining Coffey & Risdon's, were not injured in the slightest degree. The roof of the old Mechanics' Mill on Mission street, corner of Fremont, was prostrated and the walls badly [illegible] over into the street in several places. The Mechanics' Co-operative mill on Mission street was badly damaged and the machinery thrown out of place. The floor sunk down in places and raised in others. Several feet of the fire wall in the mill sunk down. The planking in the center of Mission street exposes an opening eight to ten inches across in front of the mill, and openings of the ground are still plainly to be seen on Fremont street in the same vicinity.

The floor of the Pacific Foundry is raised about two feet in places. In the Union Foundry, on First street, corner of Mission, most of the machinery was displaced. The San Francisco gas works suffered severely; the chimney fell through the roof and the main walls were cracked. On Fremont street the destruction was still greater. A great quantity of coal was stored in the building and the pressure of the mass forced the wall out on the Fremont street side from the roof to the foundation and for the space of about fifty feet. The City Hall is in a bad condition and the [illegible] the officers of the Fire Department. The Courts are adjourned and the prisoners taken from the Station House to the County Jail. A line has been stretched across Front street to keep people away.

A part of the walls of the new Calvary Church fell down. About 100 feet of the Merchandise shed south side of Folsom street wharf was completely wrecked. At the corner of Market and First streets, the ground opened in a fissure several inches wide and forty or fifty feet in length. At other places the ground opened and water was forced above the surface. At No. 158 Natoma street Charles Moneypenny's brick boarding house was made a total wreck. Most of it was thrown down. At No. 144 same street John Farmer's house was badly injured and most of his furniture destroyed. All the patients in the U. S. Marine Hospital were removed, the structure having been declared unsafe. Howard's building, on Battery, between Clay and Commercial streets, the cornice and a portion of the fire wall have fallen and demolished the wooden awning and lower cornice; the New Orleans warehouse on California and Davis streets, the fire wall on California street is demolished; fire wall on Hooker & Co.'s building, California street, is demolished. Thurnauer & [illegible] building, occupied by them, on Sacramento street, is badly cracked. The chimney on the Mint building is so badly damaged that it became necessary to close the establishment for repairs. The walls of Kimball & Co.'s carriage factory, corner of Bryant and Fourth streets, is considerably damaged and the workmen have left the building. The ground opened on the corner of Fourth and Harrison streets. The railroad track settled about eight inches, the planks between the rails being about ten inches. The wall of the Brevoort House, on the Mission street side, were badly [illegible]

On California street, below Sansome, a large one story brick building, formerly occupied by Heynemann & Co., was wholly ruined and the adjoining one occupied by the Pacific Pump Factory is thrown partly down. On the opposite side of California street a house owned by Michael Reese was badly wrecked. The walls have been sunken [illegible] broken in pieces. Some of the ornamental stone work on the Bank of California building was injured. Nearly all the windows of stores on Third street, between Mission and Market, were broken.

[illegible] badly damaged, most of the [illegible] Many chimneys on houses in the [illegible] part of the city were thrown down but [illegible] Much furniture was destroyed [illegible] [illegible] was between Sutton and [illegible] streets [illegible] At the Mission the [illegible] damage to a considerable extent [illegible] and the building generally [illegible] Mission Woolen Knitting Mill is slightly damaged. Numerous chimneys were thrown down [illegible] but no serious injuries [illegible] The large chimney on the [illegible] of [illegible] St. [illegible] about six to ten feet off the top, thrown through the roof.

The following casualties are reported:

W. St[illegible], a native of [illegible], aged 26 years, killed on Clay street.

Wm. Best, a native of Ireland, aged 40, killed at Occidental Hotel.

[illegible] a tinner, reported killed on Sacramento street.

[illegible] and Chinaman was taken out from under bricks on Clay street.

A [illegible] was [illegible] at the County Hospital mortally wounded.

A [illegible] named [illegible] was struck by a falling [illegible] Sansome street and terribly injured [illegible]

[illegible] was taken out he was still alive, though there are no hopes of his recovery.

[illegible] and numerous cases of serious injury occurred in different parts of the city.

The general delivery of the postoffice is temporarily suspended, although the [illegible] remain at their posts, making up the mails for the interior. There were [illegible] shocks during the day, at about the following times: 8:10, [illegible], 8:40, 8:45, 9:20, 9:55, 10, 10:30 and [illegible] 11 A. M. and [illegible] at 2 min [illegible] 3 [illegible] P. M.

At Oakland [illegible] around the bay the earthquake was very severe. The jail and court house at San Leandro fell in, and two or three persons were killed.

[illegible] Alameda county, Edmonson's new [illegible] The flouring mill of [illegible] [illegible] the ground. [illegible] Oak's hotel is [illegible] Washington Hotel. The Shock at Woodland

[illegible]

[illegible] The [illegible] north to south [illegible] A great many chimneys in different parts of the city were broken off at the roof and many entirely destroyed. One large stone residence had the entire front thrown down. There were three families in the building, but no one was injured. The south east corner of the American Hotel, a large brick building, was cracked so that it will have to be taken down.

All of the brick buildings in this city were more or less wrecked and injured. All of the goods in glass or grocery stores and drug stores were more or less broken and badly injured. Maynard's drug store was injured in this way more than $800; the other drug stores and grocery stores in the city suffered in proportion. At the moment of the earthquake all the town was standing on the street, ran away. Nothing to be compared with it has ever occurred before in this place.

At Other Places.

HEALDSBURG, Oct. 21.—One of the severest shocks of an earthquake ever felt in this place occurred here this morning at about 8 o'clock, lasting about ten seconds, the vibrations appearing to run from north to south, stopping clocks and shaking things up lively. No damage done of any note.

CASTERVILLE, Oct. 21.—The store of C. J. Stevens was destroyed to-day and the goods badly damaged. The store of J. Pale was badly shaken and goods damaged [illegible] Dr. Selfridge's house was partly destroyed and [illegible] badly injured. Barnber's hotel settled about two feet and is badly damaged. At the Mission, at San Jose, the church and many other buildings are in ruins.

At Alvarado the brick house of J. Taltin is entirely destroyed and the store of J. J. Sachs [illegible] with great loss of goods. No lives lost at either place.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 21.—The severest shock of earthquake ever felt in this place occurred here about eight o'clock this morning, continuing about ten seconds. Nearly all the brick buildings in the town are more or less injured. Many chimneys were thrown down. The Court House sustained more damage than any building.

Murderer Escaped

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 21.—Rufus Sweet, the murderer of Dr. John B. Gray in this city, on the evening of July 4th last, escaped from the county jail last night by digging through the walls of the cell in which he was confined and scaling the outside walls. A reward of $800 is offered for his arrest. The following is his description: five feet and ten and a half inches high, black hair, whiskers and moustache, black eyes, small black spots on his face, high forehead, large slightly hooked nose, slightly round shoulders, head inclines forward when walking, scar under his right eye, small scars on his chin, R. S. O. Sweet marked on one of his arms with indelible ink. His left arm is perforated with buckshot. He has been a sea captain, and has a rolling walk. He weighs about 200 pounds.

Maurice Dore & Co. held their usual real estate sale to-day and all lots offered brought satisfactory prices. Gold in New York closed at 136½. Other quotations unchanged.

The Campaign in California.

WOODLAWN, Oct. 21.—J. D. Hambleton closes this campaign north of the bay at this place to-night. One of the most imposing meetings here has assembled to hear the speakers. Cannon, music and a host of ladies greet the speakers, including General Wheatland and Mr. Brown, of Sacramento. Hambleton is now addressing the meeting. Great enthusiasm prevails.

OROVILLE, Oct. 11, P. M.—Hon. S. Garfielde and Hon. S. B. Manor are now addressing one of the largest [illegible] ings ever held in this city. Their speeches are received with unbounded applause. Butte county is all right.

A Singular and Prophetic Parallel

The stockholders of the Herald have evidently been [illegible] their [illegible] editor [illegible] giving up the Presidential contest as he did in his leading article of Tuesday last, so he rallies and makes one more effort to put on a bold [illegible] front. He now tells his demoralized party—though he expects none of them to believe it—that the probabilities are in favor of the following vote:

REPUBLICAN		DEMOCRATIC
Arkansas	[illegible]	Alabama	8
Florida	[illegible]	California	[illegible]
Illinois	[illegible]	Connecticut	[illegible]
Iowa	8	Delaware	[illegible]
Kansas	[illegible]	Georgia	9
Maine	7	Kentucky	11
Massachusetts	12	Louisiana	7
Michigan	8	Maryland	[illegible]
Minnesota	4	Missouri	11
Nebraska	3	Nevada	[illegible]
New Hampshire	5	New Jersey	7
Ohio	21	New York	33
Rhode Island	4	North Carolina	9
South Carolina	6	Oregon	[illegible]
Tennessee	10	West Virginia	5
Vermont	5
	12[illegible]		127

The author of this table appends the remark that "the doubtful States are Indiana, 13; Pennsylvania, 26; Wisconsin, 8. The Democracy can and may carry all of these doubtful States." It is true Indiana is close, but no intelligent Democrat supposes it will go for Seymour; while the idea that either Pennsylvania or Wisconsin is "doubtful" is so positively absurd that no Democrat who has any regard for a reputation for veracity will assert it. The Republican majority in Pennsylvania just gained is not less than 10,000, and there is no precedent where anything like so large a majority as this when gained by any party in the October election in the Keystone State, has been reversed in the Presidential election following. The Democrats have no more chance of carrying Pennsylvania for Seymour than they have of carrying Ohio. As for Wisconsin, that State gave 5,000 Republican majority last year when the great "Democratic reaction" swept over the country. What probability, then, is there that Wisconsin will go Democratic now, when the tide is setting so strongly the other way? Missouri and West Virginia are also put down in the column of Seymour States, though both of them have uniformly gone Republican by large majorities. Rebels are not allowed to vote in either State, so it will be understood that the chances of Democratic success in either are extremely small. California, Connecticut, Nevada and North Carolina are also claimed in the Herald's table for Seymour, though the last two are much more likely to go for Grant and the chances are even that the first two will do the same. Nor do the Republicans give up New York and New Jersey. It will not surprise them if they carry both. The only States which can be counted on with positive certainty for Seymour are Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware.

The Oregon reader may have some interest in knowing that just four years ago the editor of the Herald was claiming the election of McClellan, and that he published tables to prove that that event was certain. After falsely claiming that the Democrats had carried Pennsylvania in the October election (1864) he went on to say—

> That Pennsylvania will give the electoral vote of the State to her favorite son, George B. McClellan, is as certain as that the election will be held on the 8th day of November next. We are but very little less confident of Indiana for McClellan. Of the result in Ohio we are less sanguine, but by no means hopeless. Brough's majority last year on the home vote was 61,920—scarcely the half of that is now claimed by the Abolitionists—and with the soldiers' vote added his majority was 101,099. McClellan, however, is immensely popular in that State; he received his first appointment in this war as Brigadier General of Ohio Volunteers, and we regard his chances of carrying the State as about equal. The defeat of the Administration in Maryland is as good as admitted on all sides, and that State is certain for McClellan if the electors are permitted to vote. The present prospect indicates that the following will be the final result. Whole number of electoral votes, 231—necessary to a choice, 116.

MCCLELLAN		LINCOLN
Illinois	16	Iowa	8
Indiana	13	Kansas	3
Kentucky	11	Maine	7
Maryland	7	Massachusetts	12
Missouri	11	Michigan	8
New Jersey	7	New Hampshire	5
New York	33	Oregon	3
Pennsylvania	26	Rhode Island	4
		Vermont	5
	124		55

DOUBTFUL.

California	5	Ohio	21
Connecticut	6	Virginia	5
Delaware	3	Wisconsin	8
Minnesota	4
			52

The writer added that "the waning popularity of the Administration and the great personal popularity of McClellan give us the best assurance we could have of success." "There is certainly nothing," said he, "in the result of the late election disheartening to Democrats." Here we find that just four years ago, in the interval between the October and November elections, the editor of the Herald, then editor of the San Francisco Press, was positive that his party would succeed. Does he remember what followed? At this time he is not so positive, but says he is ready to concede the possibility of defeat. Therefore it appears that in his opinion his party have a poorer chance of success than it had four years ago. We coincide in this opinion. Grant will obtain more electoral votes than Lincoln received, because there is no probability that he will lose more than [illegible] or two of the States which Lincoln carried, while the vote of the reconstructed States is likely to be almost or quite a unit for him. Republicans everywhere are now more confident than they were at this juncture four years ago, while Democrats everywhere are now less confident and less enthusiastic than they were then. No doubt the singular parallel between the editor of the Herald's tables in 1864 and 1868 will strike every reader. To complete the parallel we shall have in November, 1868, the very same result we had in November, 1864.

DATES TO OCTOBER 20.

THE DEMORALIZED DEMOCRACY!

The "World" Demands the Withdrawal of Frank Blair

"Brother Montgomery" Dont See It.

General Quarrel in the Happy Family.

The "World" says the Party is Ruined if it Don't Change Front.

Seymour, in his Desperation, takes the Stump in his own Behalf.

John Quincy Adams says it is Too Late to make any Change—He says Grant's Election is Certain Great Republican Gains in Nebraska.

Blair Invited to Withdraw.

NEW YORK, Oct 19.—The New York World says the views of Seymour are not those attributed to Blair, and they should be regarded as the basis of the campaign. It says: "We think reflection will convince Blair that the ticket will be stronger if some other name is substituted for his."

Seymour Leads the Forlorn Hope

BUFFALO, Oct 23.—Seymour telegraphs that he will take the stump in person and open the campaign at Buffalo on Thursday.

War Democrats Going for Grant

NEW YORK, Oct 22.—Hiram Walbridge and many War Democrats have issued an address in favor of Grant.

John Savage is nominated for Congress in the 4th District.

Democrats in Tribulation.

NEW YORK, Oct 19.—The World says: "A party cannot subsist on vaporings and make-believe. Unless we can change the aspect of the canvass we shall have a repetition in November of the result which has overtaken us in a primary contest. Gov. Seymour can do [illegible] but Blair can aid us far more, and in a different way, by a chivalrous action superior to all eloquence."

CHICAGO, Oct 19.—A Republican Washington special says Montgomery Blair and others have quarrelled with the Democratic leaders, characterizing the withdrawal movement as an apprehended treachery. Blair says the President Johnson and Chase movement was instigated by several, all of whom have been opposed to Frank Blair from the first. Gen. Hancock spent nearly the whole of yesterday at the residence of Judge Chase. Blair says Seward is politically dead, and has no chance whether Seymour or Grant is elected, but thinks he could retain his place under Johnson, Chase or Hancock; hence he tries to effect a change in the ticket.

The Campaign in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, Oct 19.—Both parties are working hard in the Presidential contest. Regular troops, white and colored, have been distributed in various parts throughout the State. Gov. Holden proposed only a desire to preserve order and protect the State. The Democrats disclaim all purpose to interfere with suffrage.

Young Adams Talks

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct 19.—In conversation with John Quincy Adams, who is on his way home from speaking in South Carolina, he said the Southern people were as loyal as any of the North. The two races he found friendly disposed. The negroes were peaceable in all cases, except when they were excited and influenced by the carpet-baggers. Nothing is calculated to do greater harm than the disfranchisement of whites, which is more extensive than he had any idea of. On the subject of the Presidency, he says it is now too late to change. The election of Grant is inevitable. He never believed [illegible] could have carried the day against Grant, certainly not now. He considers the Democratic platform worse than the candidates. The only issue upon which it should have gone before the people was reconstruction. He considers it very unfortunate that such men as Hampton, Forrest, and men like them, were participated in the canvass. From the administration [illegible] he had [illegible] hopes that peace would be restored. As regards his own claim for the Governorship of Massachusetts, he said the nomination was more a compliment to him than anything else. He had no idea of election.

Nebraska Election

CHICAGO, Oct 20.—An Omaha dispatch says that the official vote of twenty counties gives Republican majority of 1,900. Four counties to hear from will increase this to 2,400. The total vote of the State is 18,000.

Ben Cutler, Surveyor General of New Mexico and formerly connected with the Adjutant General's office in California, died at Santa Fe last Sunday.

Democratic Congressman elect Arrested.

CHICAGO, Oct 19.—A special to the Republican says Judge Dickenson, Democrat, who beat Johnson for Congress in the 9th District, has been arrested by the U. S. Marshal, charged with issuing a large number of fraudulent naturalization papers.

Grant's Assassination Threatened.

Frank Blair, in a speech at St. Louis Friday night, declared that if Grant was elected he would never leave the White House alive, so the Democrat reports. The Republican reports him as saying he would never leave the White House alive as long as he lived.

The Republican publishes a letter written by Blair in August, to citizens of Lafayette, Indiana, asserting that the Congressional reconstruction measures have been declared void by the Supreme Court in the Milliken case. Also that the disfranchisement of the Southern whites by act of Congress was a bill of attainder and ex post facto law, both of which are forbidden by the Constitution. He says the people's will and the judgment of the courts are the highest jurisdiction, and will be enforced against the usurpation of a rump Congress.

Compliment from Madagascar.

WASHINGTON, Oct 19.—The Queen of Madagascar recently made presents to our government of costly silk articles and a silver plated coffee urn. Our government will suitably acknowledge the compliment.

Fire at Troy

TROY, Oct 20.—The extensive steel works of G. A. Griswold & Co., were destroyed by accidental fire this morning. Loss, 35,000 dollars. About 120 men were employed.

Revenue Appointments.

NEW YORK, Oct 20.—Rio dates of Sept. 23d say the Brazilian army entered Tabicuary Sept. 1st. The Paraguayans have abandoned it, leaving behind some ammunition and food. Lopez is said to have about 20,000 men. The Brazilian squadron had gone to Ascension and two monitors had gone to Matto Grosso, the latter place being abandoned by the Paraguayans. The American gunboat Wasp had gone to Ascension. A loan of $30,000,000 had been opened by the Brazilian government. The American Minister has made a proposition for an extension of the cable telegraph from Barbadoes to Brazil, which will probably be accepted.

It says the Democrats will doubtless think it best to fight the battle to the end, even if it must be with Gov. The total number [illegible] The deaths are only five, though death may yet result in one or two cases of injury. Business has been resumed in all but wrecked buildings. There is nothing to indicate to a stranger that anything unusual has transpired in the city. A careful examination of the wrecks proves beyond all question that had they all been well constructed but little material damage would have occurred. It does not appear that the news of the earthquake which has reached New York and London, has caused any alarm in private or financial circles.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature.

SALEM, Oct 22.—In the Senate a resolution was adopted to adjourn sine die on Saturday, the 24th inst. Motion to reconsider the bill was laid on the table.

The House bill to tax and regulate Chinamen was amended so as to forbid Chinamen to hold or lease lands in the State and declare all mining claims held by them vacant and subject to entry by white men. Bill referred.

On the bill to provide for the erection of an Insane Asylum, Stout offered an amendment providing that the Asylum Building Commissioners shall be ex officio Commissioners of the Penitentiary, with power to appoint a Superintendent of the Penitentiary and control him in the matter of convict labor upon the Asylum. The amendment was lost—9 to 11.

The nays were Adams, Bayley, Brown, Cornelius, Cyrus, Herman, Holtzclaw, Hurton, Ison, Miller of Marion, Porshbaker, Powell and Thompson.

Bill to create a Department of Statistics was laid on the table. It is probably dead.

The bill relating to pilotage and a tug boat at the mouth of the Columbia river was lost, 9 to 10.

The Senate will hold an evening session.

SALEM, Oct 22.—In the House the Senate amendment to Gazley's railroad memorial was concurred in.

A petition from Union county was read, asking that the county seat be removed from La Grande to Union.

Minto, from the Committee to whom was referred the petition of the Oregon Agricultural Society, reported the bill appropriating — dollars to collect and publish the agricultural statistics.

The bill authorizing a geological reconnoissance was indefinitely postponed.

A memorial was adopted in the House, asking Congress to aid in the construction of a wagon road from Yamhill to Tillamook.

Scoggins introduced a whereas and resolution, stating that the majority of the voters of the State believed that Governor Woods did not receive a majority of the votes cast, and instructing the Committee on Elections to investigate and make canvass of the vote of 1866. The resolution was voted down—ayes, 14; nays, 29.

The afternoon was taken up with a third reading of bills.

The bill for the relief of Union county was lost.

The bill to incorporate Roseburg passed.

The bill to construct the wagon road on the south side of the Columbia river to the Dalles was lost.

The bill forbidding county officers from purchasing county orders for less even than their face, passed.

Mongrel Democracy.

The genius of the Boise Democrat is in one of his most lucid moods. He is of opinion that Seymour and Blair will be elected and that "mongrelism" is doomed. The method of bringing about these results is to secure the negro vote of the South for the Democratic party. Just hear him:

> The mongrel reconstruction iniquity has failed in so far as securing the negro vote is concerned. They (the negroes) have found out who their best friends are, and are leaving the rotten and sinking ship of mongrelism. Thus are the days of mongrelism numbered.

We quite agree with the Owyhee Avalanche that this tirade against mongrelism is one of the most sublime and logical productions of modern times. Mongrelism is to be forever destroyed by the negroes abandoning the Black Republicans and mixing with the Democrats! The negroes are forsaking the "rotten cause of mongrelism" and hastening to the fond embrace of their Democratic brethren. So mongrelism is to be utterly squelched by merging the Democracy into a mongrel party. The genius of the Boise Democrat has shown the way to do it, and down South they are acting on the beautiful principle he has laid down.

If any one wishes to see a very remarkable comparison of the electoral vote claimed by the Democrats four years ago with that claimed by them now, we refer them to the article which we publish to-day, in which the prophecies of the editor of the Herald on both occasions are compared with each other. Just four years ago, after the [illegible] elections, he then held he was certain that McClellan would succeed. Now, he is figuring for Seymour, but is not so sanguine of success. [illegible] his own statements it is therefore clear that [illegible] worse chances to win than McClellan had in 1864. And this is actually a fact. The New York World and the National Democratic Committee have virtually admitted that they have no hope of success.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, Wednesday, Oct. 21, 1868.

SENATORIAL AND REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICTS

Mr. Cr[illegible]ke, in the House, reported from the Committee on Counties, a substitute for the bill to redistrict the State into Senatorial and Representative Districts. The substitute provides for eighteen Senatorial districts with twenty four Senators, twenty representative districts with fifty Representatives.

Gray's resolution to appropriate to Grant county $1[illegible] for expenses of capturing an escaped prisoner, was lost—17 to 21.

VETO MESSAGE

Gov. Woods appeared in the House and read a message vetoing House bill No. 22—to amend the act creating offices for and to regulate the Penitentiary. This is the bill to remove Major Berry from the superintendency and to give the Legislature a chance to farm out the office to a Democrat. The Governor's Message says the bill contains provisions which he cannot approve without doing violence to his sense of duty to the people of Oregon and his obligations as the Executive of the State. All legislation should be for the benefit of the whole State and all the people. The laws should be stable. Frequent changes without good cause, tend to insecurity. The Penitentiary is an important institution, and the people of the whole State have a deep interest in its being well regulated. The present officers are capable. No better could be found. The people have confidence in them. Public policy demands that good officers should be retained. He had a constitutional objection. The Constitution provides that no bill shall become a law till the expiration of ninety days from its passage, unless there be an emergency—which shall be stated in the body of the bill. This bill does not state any such emergency as is contemplated by the Constitution. As a matter of fact there is no emergency beyond a desire on the part of the Legislature to have the disposal of the offices and to elect a Superintendent now. Had there been abuses and bad management of the Penitentiary, such action taken for the public good would be justifiable; but when there have been no abuses nor mismanagement and the change is sought for only partisan purposes, it can never be justified. Such a course would render the Penitentiary liable to complete revolutions in officers and management every two years. One of the sections of the bill provides that the Governor may, by and with the advice and consent of the Penitentiary Commissioners, appoint officers to fill vacancies. This is an infringement upon the constitutional right of the Executive in whom the Constitution vests the sole power of filling vacancies. The bill proposes to divide that power with others and even to give a majority of a Board of Commissioners with whom he may differ totally, may in the appointment of officers for the Penitentiary, thus taking away, absolutely, one of the constitutional prerogatives of the Executive. In this respect the bill constitutes an aggression by the Legislative upon the Executive Department and therefore is a bad precedent. The tendency of the bill is toward centralization of power in the hands of one department and therefore dangerous to our liberties.

This is but a brief synopsis of the message, noted down as it was being read. I have not been able to procure even a glance at the document since it was placed in possession of the House, and I am conscious that I have not done it justice. The message and bill were made the special order for 7 o'clock this evening. At that hour, the House met and resolved itself into committee of the whole for the consideration of the matter, with Mr Ryan, of Wasco, in the chair.

Gray offered a resolution, "that a committee be appointed to forward a copy of this message to Andrew Johnson, who is President of a portion of the northern part of the United States, and another copy to Hiram Ulysses Grant, Military Dictator of the whole of the southern part of the Union, with instructions to inquire whether the Legislative department govern the Executive, or Executive governs the Legislative department, and whether it is lawful for either department to respect the Constitution, and if so, how is the Constitution to be construed and who has the right to construe it, and report the information desired to this House at their earliest convenience."

The reading of the resolution created considerable merriment, both on the floor and in the lobby. Mr. Jackson moved that the resolution be adopted. Mr. Stites opposed it with a series of "therefores"—a "therefore" against each proposition of the resolution, and against each proposition of the resolution, and a final total "therefore" against the sum of all the propositions. Mr. Davenport offered an amendment to add after Hiram Ulysses Grant, etc., the words "and also a copy each to Horatio Seymour and Francis P. Blair, ex nominees of the Ku Klux Democratic party." [Great laughter.] Then followed a scene of fun and confusion such as is seldom seen even on the last day of a session, when every man usually lets go of his dignity and gives vent to all his pent up humor. Several members were often on the floor talking at the same time. The Chairman, who is somewhat deaf and withal unacquainted with the counties from which the various gentlemen hailed, was unable to recognize members as the gentleman from [illegible] without waiting to ask the clerk who they were and where they came from. By this time the member would be half through his speech. The Chairman however, intent on being courteous according to the established mode, never failed to break in with, "The gentleman from Marion," or, "The gentleman from Grant," as the case might be. The effect was ludicrous in the extreme and the committee and lobby became fairly convulsed with laughter. The confusion finally became so great that the Speaker, to rescue the committee from utter demoralization, rushed to the stand, ordered Mr. Ryan [illegible] out, took the chair and hammering with terrible force, called to order and warned the lobby that if the demonstrations were continued he would direct the Sergeant at arms to clear it.

The Committee immediately rose with the request to be discharged from further consideration of the matter. After several speeches pro and con the vote was taken on the question "shall the bill pass notwithstanding the veto of the Governor?" The result was: yeas 24, nays, 1[illegible]—so the bill failed.

IN THE SENATE

The bill to regulate the sale of school lands occupied the greater part of the forenoon and much of the afternoon. It was finally referred to a committee with instructions to report a section to repeal the provision for compensation of the School Land Commissioners.

Mr. Cornelius introduced a bill to provide for the erection of an Insane Asylum. It received some opposition from Travitt and one or two others.

Mr. Thompson offered a joint resolution giving the consent of the State and asking consent of Congress to a change in the boundaries of Oregon and Washington Territory—making the summit of the Cascades the dividing line, giving Oregon all the territory on the western slope and Washington Territory all on the eastern side. It was referred to the Committee on Railroads.

A House joint resolution to increase the per diem of chief and assistant clerks of the House was amended so as to include the same officers of the Senate, and adopted.

The Senate held an evening session also, but the high old [illegible] in the House attracted so many of the Senators that it was with difficulty a quorum was kept and but little business was transacted.

STATE ITEMS

The [illegible] writes the history of a combat between a coon and a wild goose on the Wallamet river. The steamer [illegible] captured both combatants.

The Legislature is cutting down "Radical taxation" by paying the Chief and Assistant Clerks of each House, three dollars per day extra pay—just that much more than those officers ever before received.

Dr. Rowland, President of the Wallamet University, met with a serious accident on Tuesday evening. Having occasion to step into the library of the Institute, he opened the wrong door, it being quite dark, and was precipitated into the basement of the building, falling a distance of some fourteen feet. He is recovering.

Says the [illegible]: Mr. R. C. Geer received a letter from his brother J. C. Geer of Boise City, which stated that a thousand dollars had been subscribed for a silver brick to be presented to Hon. Geo. H. Williams as a testimony of his steadfast action with the Union party. Gov. Ballard has been selected to make the presentation, who is now on his way down to this valley. This testimony will be appreciated by the Senator's host of admirers in this State.

The [illegible] is beautifully illustrated by the practice so common with many of the orators of that party of pronouncing for hard money and declaring the legal tender act unconstitutional, and in the very next breath advocating [illegible] paying the public debt in this unconstitutional paper. There are plenty of rogues and rascals who would like the privilege of discharging their obligations in the same way by giving notes drawing no interest, and never to be paid.

IDAHO

On the 10th inst a man named Peter Donnelly was shot and killed in a saloon at Silver City by George [illegible].

A. [illegible] Isaacs, of Idaho City, died at Cheyenne of a fever on the 21 October.

The Owyhee paper speaks "glidenly" of the progress of mining operations in that district.

The Idaho World of the 17th says a shooting affray occurred at Granite Creek, between John M. Kelly and a butcher named Perkins. Kelly was shot through the body and Perkins in the groin. The wounds in both cases are very severe. Perkins formerly lived at Portland.

A letter with the following superscription was recently received at Idaho City:

STREET MATTERS.—We learn that some mistakes are [illegible] in reference to the improvement of [illegible] much discommode parties interested [illegible] our streets. These errors happen more particularly in regard to the amount of earth necessary to be taken from the street or the amount required for filling in. Occasionally [illegible] owners are called upon to pay for removing a much greater quantity than is actually removed, while in others the amount necessary to be taken [illegible] the established grade [illegible] the amount that can be removed [illegible] much greater than the contract price. We believe the City Surveyor [illegible] required to estimate the probable cost of improving the street and the amount of excavation or filling to be done in front of each lot. Upon these reported estimates the Committee on Streets and Public Property report an ordinance for the improvement [illegible] In the meantime the usual notice must have been given. Now the question is whether the property owner and contractor are bound by these estimates. The intent of the law is evidently that each [illegible] shall pay for improving the half of the street fronting his lot, and no contractor should be bound to the [illegible] enough to compensate him for [illegible] price unless that is enough [illegible] holder should be required to [illegible] labor and no property [illegible] done. We certainly believe [illegible] complaints made that there is a fault somewhere [illegible] should be remedied. We are not [illegible] where that the blame rests, but on behalf of those interested we commend these suggestions to the [illegible] of the members of the Common Council, some of whom have signified their intention of looking to the matter a little more closely hereafter.

ROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHTY DAYS.—When the railway across the continent of America is completed, there will be constant conveyance by means of railways and mail packets for passengers desiring to travel [illegible] the world. This grand tour will be 22,000 miles in length [illegible] will cost $1,500 and will be accomplished in [illegible] eighty days. The American tourist will be able to visit [illegible] and Japan, China, Ceylon and Egypt. He will cross the Atlantic, North [illegible] and Indian O[illegible], the Red and Mediterranean Seas, the Continent of [illegible] and the Delta of Egypt. He will be able to leave New York [illegible] the beginning of May and to arrive [illegible] about the middle of July.

CLARKE COUNTY FAIR.—We learn that the Fair at Vancouver, which commenced on the 21st, has been a [illegible] thus far. The attendance [illegible] large, the exhibition good, and showed [illegible] interest was taken in the objects of the [illegible] by all classes of the citizens. The ladies were bestirring themselves in adding to the success of the [illegible]. Many people from Portland were on hand yesterday and all expressed themselves well pleased. A telegram [illegible] last evening informs us that the races [illegible] day and will continue two days.

WELL DONE.—The beautiful drama of "[illegible]" was rendered most excellently at the Oro Fino [illegible] last night, to a fair and respectable audience. The several members of the company filled the respective [illegible] assigned them to the entire satisfaction of all [illegible]. Mr. Bates' delineation of "Old Eccles" was faultless. Mrs. Bates as Esther was above criticism. Messrs. Thayer, Robinson and Fuller, and Misses C[illegible] and [illegible] deserve much praise [illegible] in which they supported Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] last night. The entire troupe evince a great [illegible] ition to [illegible] in their profession. The same [illegible] play this [illegible].

NEW WHARF.—Preparations for the [illegible] of Messrs. Stephens & Moffett's new wharf are [illegible] forward vigorously and before the [illegible] is not much longer we may expect to see a [illegible] wharf in that part of the city. There is no [illegible] why the [illegible] chants and others residing in the Southern [illegible] of the city who have a shipping business, [illegible] be compelled to patronize the wharves at the extr[illegible] north [illegible] portion. A division of the facilities for this [illegible] will enhance the convenience of the [illegible] generally.

FOOT CRUSHED.—Yesterday morning Aaron Long, a drayman, while driving his team upon the wharf of the [illegible] Navigation Company, had one of his feet caught in the wheel of the truck, and severely [illegible]. We were informed that some of the bones were [illegible] broken. The man was suffering very much, and was taken to the American Exchange, where Dr. [illegible] dressed his wounds and at last [illegible] was doing very well.

A[illegible].—Yesterday afternoon, as Pat. [illegible] was driving down Front street above the bridge, one of his horses suddenly sheered to the right, when the fore wheel of his buggy broke completely down, the [illegible] falling upon the ground. Mr. [illegible]ith, and his wife who was in the buggy with him, were thrown out, and Mrs. [illegible] was seriously, though it is hoped, not [illegible] hurt. The horses came on down street and [illegible] below Hayden's Mill.

ARTISTIC.—From information we think that [illegible] ought to quit the business of [illegible] fire on the [illegible] (anybody could do that) and "take to the [illegible]." [illegible] we don't mean that he should run and hide himself in the brushes, but he ought to turn artist. [illegible] arises from the fact that he has [illegible] a life-like portrait of one of the [illegible] of Portland, and that among the [illegible] awarded at the Vancouver Fair one was "To J. D. [illegible] for Finis [illegible] Capt. Couch 1st Premium."

A ROW.—Quite a row occurred in one of the city [illegible] last night before last, at a late hour. Two men, one of them the notorious Mike Mall[illegible], [illegible] first in [illegible], then in a fight, and [illegible] up by drawing a knife and a pistol. Arrests were [illegible], the [illegible] investigated before Judge Hoffman, and [illegible] body is working at the expense of the county who [illegible] his doings by drinking bad whisky. They were both [illegible].

JEFFERSON STREET.—The City Council has at last located Jefferson street permanently and [illegible] the grade. This street, between First and Fr[illegible], has never been used until latterly, owing to the deep [illegible] bridge. The gulch has [illegible] been filled to the width of the street and the sidewalks are [illegible] laid, so that this thoroughfare will be open to the [illegible].

FIRE.—A correspondent of the W[illegible] writes from Whatcom, W. T., of the [illegible] in that section, mills, bridges, [illegible] timber, the building of the new mine, below [illegible] &c., were consumed in its course. The [illegible] has been destroyed for five miles to the southward and for a distance north of there.

EARTHQUAKE.—The principal theme of conversation on the streets yesterday was the great earthquake in California. The fortunate denizens of this land, [illegible] are built on solid ground and not on "[illegible] land" [illegible] each other that the pent-up fires of old earth couldn't budge the soil of the W[illegible] State.

[illegible] COUNTY—BEFORE M. P. BULL, J. P.—The following proceedings were had yesterday:

State vs. George Brown, charged with the [illegible] of threatening to kill J. C. McM[illegible] and M. L. Hart; in default of bonds in the sum of $400, [illegible] to county jail.

BUSY.—Quite a number of passengers came down on [illegible] yesterday. The Albany and Dayton had neither reached Oregon City until after the [illegible] of the Alert, so that passengers from both boats [illegible] upon the Wenat.

WHEAT.—A large quantity of wheat has [illegible] at various points along the upper Willamette, [illegible] shipment. Nearly 15,000 bushels were received at Salem last week. 140,000 bushels are said to be stored at Albany.

THE DAYTON.—This new boat on her trial trip was found

"To walk the waters like a thing of life."

The P. T. Co. justly have cause to be proud of her. She is plying between Oregon City and Dayton.

RAIN FALL.—This long and ardently [illegible] article came down last night in a copious shower, and strange for Oregon, everybody was glad to see it. The Web-foot have never seen so long a dry spell [illegible].

FUNERAL.—By reference to a special notice [illegible] elsewhere it will be seen that all members of the Order of Good Templars are [illegible] to attend the funeral of their late brother, F. H. Kent, to-day.

NOTHING HEARD.—Nothing so far has been heard from the steamers [illegible] or Wright. Probably [illegible] detention [illegible] smoke.

PERSONAL.—J. W. [illegible], Esq., of the Courier, called on us last evening. [illegible] Yamhill is all right for Grant, but [illegible]

PROF. M[illegible] will give a social party at his [illegible] hall, corner of [illegible] and Alder streets, to-morrow evening.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The bark Helen W. Almy [illegible] from San Francisco for Portland on last W[illegible].

PROF. CARDI[illegible] semi-monthly soiree will take place at his dancing academy to-morrow evening.

GOING.—A number of the Portland folks are going over to Vancouver [illegible] to attend the Fair.

LIVE STOCK.—About two hundred head of cattle were shipped to the Dalles by the Cascades yesterday.

STILL OUT.—The schooner Alaska, long overdue from Honolulu, is still outside the bar.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr. Fitzgerald has opened a Night School in the [illegible] House (up stairs) near the Catholic Church. Terms: For Reading, Writing, A[illegible] and English Grammar $2 50 per month. For Book Keeping, Geometry and Algebra $5 per month. School opens at [illegible] and closes at 9:30 P. M.

[illegible] take pleasure in announcing to the citizens [illegible] that they will open to-day, the [illegible] of French Beavers of all [illegible] vestings ever brought [illegible] have a fashionable suit [illegible] Dartman Brothers and an [illegible] the attention of tailors [illegible] line, together with [illegible] selling wholesale, at [illegible] for gentlemen and [illegible] of the man who purifies [illegible] witness box, and every [illegible] gleaming [illegible] testify to tion and Commission

A Beacon of Health —The good things of this world have each their appointed mission
It is the mission of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS to prevent and remove a great variety of ailments
For twelve years its success as a protective and a remedy has been without check or drawback It is strong negative evidence of this fact that the efficacy of the article for dyspepsia [illegible] biliousness constipation nervousness general debility and intermittent fevers has never been questioned
As proof positive of its infallibility in such cases the statements of public men who [illegible] are familiar as household words have from time to time been given to the world
If its reputation is not founded in facts then truth is a shadow and the utterances of respectable citizens are of no more value than [illegible]
And what is its reputation? Let the progress of its sales answer the inquiry where twenty dozen bottles of Hostetter's Bitters were sold in 1858 five hundred dozen are disposed of now
Could public opinion be more significantly expressed than by its unparalleled increase of consumption? It seems impossible
The preparation has been imitated Where are the imitators? Echo answers Where? To the limbo of things that on earth they are all either gone or going Peace be with them

AN [illegible] AT THE [illegible] THE [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] Dept [illegible]

[illegible] North to the prejudice uv the Dimocrisy I [illegible] truth [illegible] I will prefis my account by statin that the citizens uv the [illegible] the crms with the [illegible] men feelin that ther interests are [illegible] completely we hev [illegible] our prejudices and how much we desire peace I [illegible] that for a month ther hev bin only two niggers hung and them under circumstances uv grate provocashun One uv em made a fire at Isaaker Gavitt [illegible] refused to give Kernel [illegible] credit for a [illegible] water melons, ev[illegible] the Kernel already owed him, and that ther wuz no law for a nigger to [illegible] white men [illegible] and insolence from em

The late unpleasantness originated in this wise The Radikels uv this county hed given out that they intended to hold a politikal meetin at this place on the 20th instant I know that ef they did it, blood would flow [illegible] the temper and feelins uv our peaceable citizens To avoid bloodshed I sent word to em not to come [illegible] hold the meetin — that ef they did, I couldn't be held responsible, and ther [illegible] own heads Partikerlerly I warned em not to come armed for our citizens wouldn't [illegible] anyhow We kin never permit men [illegible] from us to carry arms ez in case we hev disputes with em they mite be dangerous.

My well meant endeavors wuz frootless and Isaaker Gavitt thot he'd try On the mornin uv the day Isaaker rode out to find ef they were bound to come in and also whether they wuz armed He returned reportin uv em comin and every one armed to the teeth At 10 A M the procession entered the town, headed by moosic and the national flag Ez it passed Bascom's, Isaaker Gavitt who hed a double barrelled shot gun in his hand happened accidentally to let the hammer fall onto the nipple when it went off Unfortunately it wuz pinted in the direction of the procession and a nigger fell from his horse with the top of his head blowed off To increase the disorder a small rock, playfully throwed by Kernel [illegible] about the same time struck another one on the head, and several other rocks from [illegible] about Bascom's [illegible] Hed the niggers passed on quietly all would hev been well, but they didn't Eager to quarrel and full of insolence, and ready seeking a pretext to embroil us the procession stopped to [illegible] foosbin many uv em takin to the woods [illegible] the impression that they hed been attacked The duplicity uv the nigger caracter is beyond findin out! We wuz surprised at ther breaking up so suddenly, and for a minit we didn't know what to do

Ef the procession stopt in front uv Bascom's our citizens conjectured ther design wuz to attack the grosery which is reely the citadel uv the [illegible] In Bascom's is all the likker we hev — in Bascom's our innocent revels is held — and Bascom's we will defend it to the last! Wat wuz we to do? Unarmed and helpless we were unprepared for this But Heaven smiled onto us, and give us the means to defend ourselves The rifles, revolvers and shot-guns belongin to the principle families uv the Corners, and the surroundin country happened to be in Bascom's stackt up behind his bar and providenshally they wuz all loaded and capped In a minit's time they wuz distributed and afore the mob could organize to make the attack a well directed volley wuz poured into em This dismayed em, and the entire mass uv em sich ez wasn't killed, fled to the woods Two uv the blood-thirsty wretches wuz shot at the edge uv McPelter's woods, by the Captain and [illegible] Pennibacker, who feared that they wuz a goin there to reorganize and return to complete their dreadful work Elder Pennibacker killed one in human villain with an ax, wich hed bin wounded in the leg and wuz found in a corner uv his fence tryin to stop the flow uv the blood [illegible] wuz afeared he might reorganize. All that day a posse uv citizens were engaged in quellin the fears uv the community by huntin down these dangerous incenjaries with dorgs and killin uv em, for ez they exceeded us in numbers we reely trembled for the safety uv our wives and children

After a terrible day, the agitated town wuz restored to its wonted peace, and the citizens slept ez yoozual. The casualties on our side is not so large ez mite hev been expected, when we consider the fearful purpose uv the barbarians who assailed us. Deekin Pogram wuz seriously injoored by a rock wich Isaaker Gavitt histid strate up in his unthinkin excitement, and poor Kernel McPelter's shot gun bust the second time he fired it takin off his thumb These injuries sustained by our citizens, may be charged directly to the infernal spirit uv the insolent niggers who would perveke our peacefully inclined people But they suffered for it. Eleven uv em wuz killed, and some thirty or forty wuz wounded The latter hev all bin cared for They wuz taken to the County Infirmary for treatment — the expenses bein charged up to em ez a lien upon their property wich will, uv course, be sold to defray it

Our citizens do not boast uv wat they hev dun They feel it wuz an unplesant dooty they hed to perform, but they hed to do it Corrupt and reckliss men hev ben madin the culored peeple astray, and they hed to defend theirselves Hed they only taken my advice and not attempted to hold their meetins this wood not hev happened Hed they not hev come into the Corners with moosic and a Nashnel flag a flyin, they woodn't hev ben killed. And even then hed they gone quietly, after the fust one wuz shot and the others wuz knockt down with stuns, I doubt whether anything more wood hev bin dun.

They shoodent hev held meetins. We kin never endoor meetins uv niggers, and we never will Knowin this, why will they persist in holdin em?

The citizens uv the Corners agree unanimously (except Joe Bigler and Pollock) that all the blame must rest upon the niggers. I don't bleeve in appeals to arms, but wat kin we do when we are so driven?

PETROLEUM V NASBY P M
(Wich is Postmaster)

P. S.—The President needn't send soljers down to protect us, at least so long ez Grant is in command Hed we Genral Blair or Hancock in command with Seymore ez President it wood be different Ez it is we shel hev to perteckt ourselves

Frank Blair in a Tight Place We find the following report of a significant conversation in the New York Sun of September 16

A well known gentleman of this city was conferring with General F P Blair Jr not long since, upon the power of Congress to reconstruct the South General Blair warmly maintained that the reconstruction laws were unconstitutional and that there was no authority in the National Government to endow negroes with the elective franchise in the conquered States "You are mistaken" said his friend. The Supreme Court has fully decided the question in favor of the power exercised by Congress

"How so?" asked the General "I never heard of any such decision"

"I will give the points," was the reply

"I. The Supreme Court has decided that the National Government has the same rights and powers as regards the States in rebellion as it would have to States or Territories conquered in war with a foreign power

"II. The Supreme Court decided yearsago that in New Mexico, which we had just then conquered in the war with Mexico the orders of General Kearney the Military Governor of that Territory had all the force of law, and must be obeyed as such

"III Among these orders of Kearney in Mexico, was a code of laws which he promulgated some time about 1857 by which the rights of suffrage was conferred upon all males of lawful age, without distinction of color negroes included

"IV This code, which was thus imposed on New Mexico by the military power the Supreme Court decided to be the rightful law of the Territory until it should be set aside by express act of Congress

V. The apparent author of this negro suffrage code was Francis P Blair Jr whose name was attached to it as Attorney General of the Territory

"That's true," responded Blair, "but I didn't suppose any d—d Black Republican knew it."

Wonder if our Democratic friends can explain this outrage upon the "white man's party on the ground of military necessity

EXTINGUISHER
PORTABLE
SELF ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in an instant [illegible]
The [illegible] derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows
Every fire begins on a small scale and its rapid and uncontrollable [illegible] is owing to the fact that at the time of the commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are [illegible] at hand
The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement
It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years
It puts out Fire instantly
It saves the great damage of water now used for this purpose
It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as in that of an experienced Fireman
It is portable and as easily handled as a bucket of water
It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and is as effective as a Steam Engine
It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline and combustible materials now in common use

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are [illegible] out a miserable existence from the effects of [illegible] indulgence or of the virus absorbed into the system To look at their pallid emaciated and fatigued faces, their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life [illegible] situation [illegible] sands suffer and die [illegible] Let parents, guardians friends attend to all [illegible] who are suffering with any of these horrible [illegible] that they are cured for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who has certain [illegible] without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted [illegible] to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest [illegible] publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days [illegible] using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and their places [illegible] strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears a noise like the rustling of leaves and sitting [illegible] uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained shortly apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates impose the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are [illegible] shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients' letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
